appointed to the important position of director of the military reserve army during the war, and accompanied him during its victorious march to the Rhine. His services were equally as available in the field of battle as by the couch of the wounded. In the ranks of the army he was known as the "noble" Squire, and when not engaged in active service presided here as Surgeon of the United States army at this place. His age is supposed to be about 60 years.

Many noble traits which adorned the life of Dr. Harney, as a man and a citizen, are in the esteem and admiration of his friends and citizens. Charity, "which covers a multitude of sins," was practiced by him in the most liberal manner. His benevolent disposition, ministering to their wants in his capacity as a distinguished physician, and in his purse, which was ever open to the wants of the poor. Dr. Harney was one of the founders of the United States Sanitarium, entitled to the rank of Surgeon, which we understand he twice declined.

As we write places of business and residences are everywhere to be seen, and we can hardly ever find our

SMITH KILLED BY HIS OWN GUN—A man by the name of Smith, who lives in this community—Baton Rouge, La., was killed by his own gun. He was shot while on a hunting trip. He was shot in the chest and the bullet entered his arm-pit, and the other entered his chest on the breastbone. The entire chest cavity was shattered, at the shoulder, and as the physicians were severed, profuse bleeding took place. A physician was summoned, but as the wound was so serious, he was unable to render the aid necessary but little assistance.

last night, the dwelling house of C. G. located at the side of the bluff at the street, was blown over the rock, and a twenty-five fire foot was literally smashed to shreds, having killed Mrs. Glenside outright, and her four little children more or less mangled, but not killed, the two of them c/o'ed it. The accident happened at about 11 o'clock, and, as soon as the firemen got our citizens ready to disassemble, and rescued the little suffering the rubbish and timbers. It is thought that the children were not all killed. They had on stilts, as it were upon the very edge of the cliff, and they were very much injured. They were all very badly injured it bottom upwards, as it seem upon the roof. It is thought that the little and her children were in bed at the time of the awful occurrence.
